

CALL FOR PAPERS

Economics of Energy & Environmental Policy

Economics of Energy & Environmental Policy (EEEP), published by the International Association for Energy Economics (IAEE), focuses on policy issues involving energy and environmental economics. EEEP is a peer-reviewed, multidisciplinary publication that provides a scholarly and research-based, yet easily readable and accessible source of information on contemporary economic thinking and analysis of energy and environmental policy issues. The publication encourages dialogue between business, government and academics and improves the knowledge base for energy and environmental policy formation and decision-making. EEEP produces original papers, policy notes, organized symposia on specific policy issues, feature articles, book reviews and commentaries on current energy and environmental policy issues and studies. The editors are Jean-Michel Glachant (European University Institute in Florence, Italy), Paul L. Joskow (Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, USA) and Michael Pollitt (Cambridge University, United Kingdom).

Article Preparation

Economics of Energy & Environmental Policy is a peer-reviewed, double-blind, multidisciplinary international publication. Articles must be high-quality, original papers (never published before) that will contribute to furthering the knowledge base of energy and environmental policy matters.

Please refer to the Article Submission Instructions for detailed guidelines on how to submit articles for publication consideration. The referee and author feedback process is quick, showcasing how timely policy matters and research converge to publication.
